The carrying and use of weapons in public places is prohibited. Public place within the meaning of the Law on Weapons shall mean a place, to which an unlimited number of persons have unrestricted access under all conditions (streets, squares, roads, picnic sites, harbors, airports, railway stations, bus stations, waiting rooms, restaurants, retail stores, craftsman’s establishments etc.) or under certain conditions (facilities hosting the Parliament of the Republic of Macedonia, the President of the Republic of Macedonia, the Government of the Republic of Macedonia, state bodies, courts, the Public Prosecutor’s Office, the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Macedonia, local self-government units, educational/health/social institutions, sport arenas, playfields, public transport, cinemas, theaters and concert halls, exhibition spaces, gardens etc.), as well as other places that serve such a purpose for a certain period of time (grounds or facilities where public gatherings, celebrations, competitions etc. are organized), where its use may jeopardize the safety of other persons.

The legal persons referred to in Article 8 paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of the Law on Weapons shall keep weapons separate from ammunition, in a room that is appropriately secured or in an iron cabinet or safe. Weapons and ammunition are generally kept in specialized weapons rooms or in the premises where the legal person has its registered office.

Legal persons shall keep records on all weapons and ammunition and shall appoint a person responsible for weapons and ammunition. Any changes of the responsible person must be reported by the legal persons to the competent authority within eight days.

The responsible person shall allow any authorized officer of the competent authority to control the manner in which weapons and records are kept.

In the case of a change of the place of permanent/habitual residence or the registered office of the holder of a weapon license or a license to possess a weapon, the holder shall register the weapon with the competent authority for the new place of residence or registered office within 30 days.
