SEESAC Participates in Meeting of Deputy Chiefs of Defence of South Eastern Europe Defence Ministerial (SEDM) Forum

SEESAC participated in the Meeting of Deputy Chiefs of Defence (DCHOD) of the South Eastern Europe Defence Ministerial Forum organised under the Sofia Chairmanship in Brdo kod Kranja, Slovenia, on 14 June 2022. The meeting gathered representatives of the Member Nations and international/regional organisations (SEESAC, RACVIAC) to foster dialogue and regional cooperation and exchange information related to common security challenges in the region. It also aimed at encouraging political-military collaboration in South Eastern Europe (SEE) to further strengthen security and stability in the region.

The meeting was presided by Mr. Yordan Bozhilov, SEDM-CC/PMSC Chairman and Deputy Minister of Defence, MoD Sofia, Ms. Daniela Grigorova, SEDM-CC/PMSC Secretariat, MoD Sofia and Major General Roman Urbanč, Deputy Chief of General Staff, MoD Ljubljana. SEDM member nations, observers and affiliated international and regional organisations participated in the meeting.

During the meeting, SEESAC provided an update on the activities conducted since the last SEDM-DCHOD meeting in supporting the counterparts in South Eastern Europe to strengthen small arms and light weapons control and advance gender equality in the military. Moreover, the participants were informed on implementation of the projects devoted to disarmament and arms control in South Eastern Europe.

Furthermore, we were pleased to announce that a regional workshop for the defence authorities from the region Focusing on Good Practices Related to Ammunition Surveillance will be organised in close cooperation with RACVIAC and with the EU support in Podgorica on 27-29 June 2022.

SEESAC also used this opportunity to reaffirm its commitment to jointly work with the SEDM Secretariat and all the forum's participating Nations in contributing to regional security, stability and peace, as well as to the Sustainable Development Goals.

SEDM DCOD Chair emphasized the significance of the SEESAC's assistance in contributing to security, stability and cooperation in SEE.

What is Cookie?

A cookie is a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in a user's web browser while a user is browsing a website. When the user browses the same website in the future, the data stored in the cookie can be retrieved by the website to notify the website of the user's previous activity

How do we use cookies?

A visit to a this page could generate the following types of cookie.

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website. Without these cookies services you have asked for, like shopping baskets or e-billing, cannot be provided.

2. Performance cookies

These cookies collect information about how visitors use a website, for instance which pages visitors go to most often, and if they get error messages from web pages. These cookies don't collect information that identifies a visitor. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous. It is only used to improve how a website works.

3. Functionality cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in) and provide enhanced, more personal features. For instance, a website may be able to provide you with local weather reports or traffic news by storing in a cookie the region in which you are currently located. These cookies can also be used to remember changes you have made to text size, fonts and other parts of web pages that you can customise. They may also be used to provide services you have asked for such as watching a video or commenting on a blog. The information these cookies collect may be anonymised and they cannot track your browsing activity on other websites.

4. Targeting and advertising cookies

These cookies are used to deliver adverts more relevant to you and your interests They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaign. They are usually placed by advertising networks with the website operator's permission. They remember that you have visited a website and this information is shared with other organisations such as advertisers. Quite often targeting or advertising cookies will be linked to site functionality provided by the other organisation.
