

PROJECT
SUPPORT FOR GENDER MAINSTREAMING IN POLICING PRACTICE IN SOUTH-EASTERN EUROPE

Presentation of the report

“Establishing the South East Europe Women Police Officers Network”

Sarajevo, 28th October 2010
Hotel Evropa

AGENDA

10.00 – 10.40

Press conference

Alija Kazić, Advisor to Director of Police BiH-Federation

Yuri Afanasiev, UNDP Resident Representative

H.E. Jan Braathu, Ambassador, The Royal Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo

Kilian Wahl, EUPM Mission in BiH

Bojana Balon, SEESAC, Coordinator of regional project Support for Gender Mainstreaming in Policing Practice in SEE

Snežana Novović, MoI Republic of Serbia, Lead researcher, Presentation of research report - Establishing the South East Europe Women Police Officers Network

11.00 – 11.30

Opening ceremony

Alija Kazić, Advisor to Director of Police BiH-Federation

Yuri Afanasiev, UNDP Resident Representative

H.E. Jan Braathu, Ambassador, The Royal Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo

Bojana Balon, SEESAC, Coordinator of regional project Support for Gender Mainstreaming in Policing Practice in SEE

Aleksandra Miletić-Šantić, EUPM Mission in BiH

- 11.30 – 11.45 Presentation of the UN SC Resolution 1325 and the Action Plan for the Implementation of the Resolution 1325 in Bosnia and Herzegovina 2010-2013
- Samra Filipović-Hadžiabdić, Director, Agency for Gender Equality, BiH
- 11.45 – 12.15 Coffee break
- 12.15 – 12.30 Presentation of the project 'Support for Gender Mainstreaming in Policing Practice in South-Eastern Europe'
- Bojana Balon, SEESAC, Project coordinator
- 12.30 – 13.15 Presentation of research findings on the status and role of women in the police in SEE
- Snežana Novović, Assistant Head, Police Education Directorate, MoI Serbia
- 13.15 – 13.45 Discussion
- 13.45 Closing remarks
- 14.00 Lunch